Business Alliance Program

'Business Alliance Program membership allows us to meet the people at Texas co-ops who buy insurance. That means we can build and strengthen relationships with potential and existing customers. And for The Nitsche Group, strong relationships mean success selling our products.'

Patty Brown, vice president, The Nitsche Group

To meet the ongoing business needs of our members, Texas Electric Cooperatives offers organizations such as yours the opportunity to connect with electric cooperative decision-makers through membership in the TEC Business Alliance Program.

Members of the TEC Business Alliance Program can interact face-to-face with decision-makers from electric cooperatives across Texas by attending, exhibiting or sponsoring association conferences and events throughout the year. There is no better way to showcase your products and services than at gatherings of motivated co-op industry professionals focused on specific areas such as engineering, human resources, accounting, member services and loss control.

TEC Business Alliance Program Benefits

- Exclusive opportunities to attend, sponsor and underwrite events at the TEC Annual Meeting
- Opportunities to attend all TEC conferences and participate in exhibit shows at the Loss Control, Engineering, Accounting and Information Technology conferences

- Member-discounted registration fees for all TEC conferences, workshops, webinars and Loss Control schools
- Recognition as a Business Alliance Program member at all TEC conferences, including on screen during breaks for the calendar year of membership
- Recognition in a tabbed section in the annual TEC Directory of members and on the TEC website
- Discounted advertising in the annual TEC Directory
- Free copy of the annual TEC Directory
- Free subscriptions to Texas Co-op Power, TEC Report and TEC Loss Control Safety Watch

Membership Dues

$700 annually per organization. Dues for the following year are payable by June 1. Benefits begin immediately.

Business Alliance Program

Throughout the year, TEC provides a variety of networking and marketing opportunities for Business Alliance Program members. Key among them is the ability to register and attend, exhibit at or sponsor our membership conferences.

All TEC conferences tailor specific programming to meet the needs of individual groups of co-op staff. Participation in these conferences allows your organization to easily reach your target audience.

We understand that every business must make the most of its marketing budget, and our scalable marketing opportunities mean that you can participate at the level that makes the most sense for you.

Annual TEC Conferences

Directors Conference

The Directors Conference brings together co-op leaders from across the state once a year to share best practices and network. This hard-to-reach group works to develop their co-ops' roles in the community. Attendees have the opportunity to advance their board leadership certifications with pre-conference workshops.

Attendees: Directors

Length: 2 days

Size: 150-200

Opportunities: Sponsorship only

Loss Control Conference & Exhibit Show

The Loss Control Conference and Exhibit Show educates and informs employees on safe practices to incorporate both in and out of the workplace. Sessions typically include real-world examples of how employees can perform highly dangerous work safely. Networking opportunities include a two-day exhibit show and golf tournament for attendees.

Attendees: Operation managers, safety managers, crew supervisors, linemen/journeymen

Length: 3 days

Size: 375-450

Opportunities: Exhibit show, sponsorship

Accounting Conference & Exhibit Show

The Accounting Conference and Exhibit Show informs CFOs, accountants and financial services employees about best practices on challenging financial issues and new outlooks on complying with numerous fiscal policies, especially those impacting cooperatives.

Attendees: CFOs, senior accountants, budget managers, accounting clerks

Length: 2 days

Size: 100-150

Opportunities: Exhibit show, sponsorship

Human Resources Conference

The Human Resource Conference provides a blend of learning and networking opportunities to enhance the skills of human resources employees. A typical conference agenda will include sessions on federal and state guidelines involving employees, employee engagement plans and sharing best practices.

Attendees: HR managers, HR supervisors/coordinators, administrative managers

Length: 1½ days

Size: 40-60

Opportunities: Sponsorship

Administrative Professionals Conference

The Administrative Professionals Conference brings together employees who oversee a broad range of responsibilities, including management and support of the office of the CEO, handling the details of their board of directors and, in many cases, influencing buying decisions inside the co-op office.

Attendees: Executive assistants, administrative assistants, office managers

Length: 1½ days

Size: 40–60

Opportunities: Sponsorship

Information Technology Conference & Exhibit Show

The Information Technology Conference and Exhibit Show includes open discussions about securing networks, new technologies updates and upcoming software innovations—all to ensure IT managers are prepared to navigate the future while dealing with today's challenges.

Attendees: IT managers, IT specialists, IT superintendents, senior consultants

Length: 2 days

Size: 45-65

Opportunities: Exhibit show, sponsorship

Youth Tour

Washington, D.C.

Influenced and initiated by LBJ, the Youth Tour has been ongoing for more than 50 years with cooperatives supporting high school students by sending them to Washington D.C. on the trip of a lifetime.

Attendees: 150 high school students, sponsored in part by their local cooperatives

Opportunities: Sponsorship

TEC Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting is the largest and most elaborate conference of the year. Attendees include cooperative leaders involved in strategic planning as well as day-to-day operations.

Attendees: CEOs, CFOs, CIOs, general managers, directors

Length: 3½ days

Size: 800

Opportunities: Exhibit show (every five years), sponsorship

Special Note: Registration restricted to co-op members and Business Alliance Program members only. Special BAP appreciation reception.

Engineering/Materials Management/Environmental Conferences & Exhibit Show

These three conference allow the attendees to share and learn what's new in these ever-changing industries. These are information-filled conferences with a two-day exhibit show and several networking opportunities including a golf tournament.

Attendees: Project managers, operations managers, system engineers, electrical engineers, inventory management, purchasing agents, warehouse managers, environmental engineers, compliance coordinators

Length: 3½ days

Size: 250–300

Opportunities: Exhibit show, sponsorship

Member Services & Communications Conference

The Member Services and Communications Conference covers a broad range of member-facing topics such as social media, customer service, communications of all types and marketing and relationship building. There are several networking opportunities including a golf tournament and social outings.
