

TEC

Business Alliance Program

“The TEC Business Alliance Program provides us valuable visibility among co-op employees across Texas. Through exhibit and sponsorship opportunities at various TEC conferences throughout the year, I am able to build meaningful relationships with both new and long-standing customers.”

—Guy Gray, Vantage Point

To meet the ongoing business needs of our members, Texas Electric Cooperatives offers organizations such as yours the opportunity to connect with electric cooperative decision-makers through membership in the TEC Business Alliance Program.

Members of the TEC Business Alliance Program can interact face-to-face with decision-makers from electric cooperatives across Texas by attending, exhibiting or sponsoring association conferences and events throughout the year. There is no better way to showcase your products and services than at gatherings of motivated co-op industry professionals focused on specific areas such as engineering, human resources, accounting, member services and loss control.

TEC Business Alliance Program Benefits

- Exclusive opportunities to attend, sponsor and underwrite events at the TEC Annual Meeting
- Opportunities to attend all TEC conferences and participate in exhibit shows at the Loss Control, Engineering, and Information Technology conferences

- Member-discounted registration fees for all TEC conferences, workshops, webinars and Loss Control schools
- Recognition as a Business Alliance Program member at all TEC conferences, including on screen during breaks for the calendar year of membership
- Recognition in a tabbed section in the annual TEC Directory of members and on the TEC website
- Discounted advertising in the annual TEC Directory
- Free copy of the annual TEC Directory
- Free subscriptions to Texas Co-op Power, TEC Report and TEC Loss Control Safety Watch

Updated 05.18.2026

Throughout the year, TEC provides a variety of networking and marketing opportunities for Business Alliance Program members. Key among them is the ability to register and attend, exhibit at or sponsor our membership conferences.

All TEC conferences tailor specific programming to meet the needs of individual groups of co-op staff. Participation in these conferences allows your organization to easily reach your target audience.

We understand that every business must make the most of its marketing budget, and our scalable marketing opportunities mean that you can participate at the level that makes the most sense for you.

Annual TEC Conferences

Loss Control Conference & Exhibit Show

The Loss Control Conference and Exhibit Show educates and informs employees on safe practices to incorporate both in and out of the workplace. Sessions typically include real-world examples of how employees can perform highly dangerous work safely. Networking opportunities include an exhibit show and golf tournament for attendees.

Attendees: Operation managers, safety managers, crew supervisors, linemen/journeymen

Length: 3 days in March

Size: 375–450

Opportunities: Exhibit show, sponsorship

Accounting Conference

The Accounting Conference informs CFOs, accountants and financial services employees about best practices on challenging financial issues and new outlooks on complying with numerous fiscal policies, especially those impacting cooperatives.

Attendees: CFOs, senior accountants, budget managers, accounting clerks

Length: 2 days in April

Size: 100–150

Opportunities: Vendor showcase, sponsorship

Human Resources Conference

The Human Resource Conference provides a blend of learning and networking opportunities to enhance the skills of human resources employees. A typical conference agenda will include sessions on federal and state guidelines involving employees, employee engagement plans and sharing best practices.

Attendees: HR managers, HR supervisors/coordinators, administrative managers

Length: 1½ days in May

Size: 40–60

Opportunities: Sponsorship

Administrative Professionals Conference

The Administrative Professionals Conference brings together employees who oversee a broad range of responsibilities, including management and support of the office of the CEO, handling the details of their board of directors and, in many cases, influencing buying decisions inside the co-op office.

Attendees: Executive assistants, administrative assistants, office managers

Length: 1½ days in May

Size: 40–60

Opportunities: Sponsorship
